

Rannar Park

Whether working with children, start-up founders or governmental representatives, Rannar Park has always focused on bringing communities closer together and facilitating relationships to ensure no opportunity ever goes unexplored or unused. Thanks to his background in education and organisational management he is a strong proponent of the digitalisation of services for the sake of upskilling the population and un-cluttering people's lives.

As e-Estonia Briefing Centre's Head of Business Management, Rannar aims to connect entrepreneurs and state entities to foster cross-borders innovation, international business relations and make sure the gospel of e-Estonia is heard in every corner of the world.

e-Estonia Briefing Centre is a governmental body created in 2009 for the development and promotion of e-Estonia brand. Estonia is the world leader in the digitalisation of government services.

Education

BA
English Philology and American-British Studies, University of Tartu, Estonia

Topic of Focus entrepreneurship and finance, education, start-up ecosystem, deeptech, e-governance and international relations

Languages

English, Estonia

